RULES

- At LVR Dressage Schooling Shows USEF rules apply.
- All fees must accompany entry form. Scratches accompanied by a veterinarian's statement that the horse is unable to compete will be given credit towards the next LVR show.
- You must check LVR web site for riding times the Friday evening prior to the show date after 6 pm . Times will not be phoned or mailed.
- If it rains prior to the show, competitors will be responsible for contacting show management regarding the status of the show. The show will not be canceled unless the footing is deemed unsafe.
- Dogs must be on a leash at all times.
- No stallions ridden by minors.
- Regulation & Cowboy Dressage -
 - Equipment requirements -
 - An English or Dressage style saddle is required for all classes except Cowboy Dressage which may be ridden in a western style saddle with horn.
 - Western Bits are to mimick the English version for the level which horses are legally required to use for the test which the rider has chosen to compete.
 - For Training, First and Second Level tests, a plain snaffle bridle is required with either a regular cavesson, a dropped noseband, a flash noseband (a combination of a cavesson noseband and a dropped noseband attachment) or a crossed noseband. A padded noseband is allowed. Exception - in Cowboy Dressage tests a western style bridle with or without nose band and a plain snaffle may be used.
 - For Third and Fourth Level tests same as above, or a simple double bridle (bridoon (snaffle) and bit (curb) and curb chain, lip strap and rubber or leather cover for curb chain optional, cavesson noseband only). Cowboy Dressage - Curb bit less bridoon (snaffle). Horse must exhibit a light loose rein on western curb bit throughout test preformed single handed.
 - Martingales, bit guards, any kind of gadgets (such as bearing, side, running, balancing reins, tongue tied down, etc.), any kind of boots (including "easy-boots") or bandages (including tail bandages) and any form of blinkers, ear muffs or plugs, nose covers, seat covers, hoods are, under penalty of elimination, strictly forbidden except in the warm up ring. In the warm up ring only running martingales (with snaffle only), boots, bandages (without magnets) and ear muffs are permitted. Single direct side reins are permitted only when longeing (mounted or unmounted) only with one lunge line.
 - Attire requirements -
 - Jackets and braiding are not required.
 - In Cowboy Dressage classes only a Western style shirt, hat and boots and optional chaps may be worn (western spurs with rowels are not allowed).
- Cowboy Dressage will compete against other Cowboy Dressage Competitors at same level. English Dressage will compete against other English Dressage competitors at same level.

Los Vallecitos Riders is a family oriented club offering trail rides, pot lucks, and year-end awards for two show circuits: Rail Shows (Western and English) and Dressage. We have a limited number of corrals available on a first-come, first-serve basis at Walnut Grove Park.
